It was learned in late April 1950 that Otto Herrmann, a former colonel in the German Army, who was allegedly captured by the Soviets at Stalingrad, was released from Soviet PW captivity several weeks ago. Herrmann did not join his family [redacted] but enlisted in the Volkspolizei with the rank of colonel. He expects to be stationed in Flauen (L 51/K 12) and plans to move his family to that town soon. Herrmann displayed a pronounced pro-Soviet attitude while in the PW camp.
